We failed in our last issue to note the fact that Dr. Letcher R. Bingham became very rich on Christmas day, his wife presenting him a bouncing baby boy.

A considerable little snow fall Tuesday night, but much of it melted as it fell, but still there is more snow on the ground than at any one time during the winter.

Mr. T. W. Swinson, contractor on the big reservoir for the Appalachian Training School, returned Tuesday, after a business trip of several days to his headquarters in Charlotte.

If you are due The Democrat only one dollar, it would be very gratefully received just now, as we really need it. Friend, this means you, if you are due us any thing, so please send it in at once, or call at the office and make settlement.

Owing to a break of some of the machinery propelling the big band mill at Shulls Mills, on last Saturday, operations had to be suspended, until yesterday morning for repairs to be made. The six o'clock whistle can again be heard and the work is moving on as usual.

Messrs. Roscoe Little and Jack Dorset with two railroad friends, all of Salisbury, came up last week, Mr. Little on a business trip and the other gentlemen to hunt birds on his big estates in Watauga. We are told that they succeeded well, many quail and a few ducks being bagged.

C., have located at Hickory, where they will engage in the same business, two cars of fine stock arriving in that city Monday. Mr. Coffey is a former Boone boy, and we wish for him and his partner abundant success in their new place of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Luttrell, who for the past sixteen months have occupied rooms over The Democrat offices, are moving today to Montezuma, Avery county. They have made many warm friends here who are loth to see them leave, as their stay has been most pleasant for all who knew them. They are most likeable people and will be much missed by the residents of the town.

Mrs. Ellis, mother of Mr. C. A. Ellis, left on Wednesday of last week for a short visit to relatives at Cranberry. On Friday night she was seized with an acute attack of appendicitis; rushed as quickly as possible to a hospital at Elizabethton, Tenn., where an operation was performed on Saturday. She stood the operation well, but on Tuesday evening Mr. Ellis received a message that she was not getting on so well, and he is now with her.
